Casa do Peso is a Manor House from the 18th century, inserted in a village, located in the small parish of Vale do Peso, municipality of Crato.

Inside, the rooms follow a thematic history and represent the achievements of the Portuguese around the world, the discoveries and the unique relationship that Portugal established in lands overseas.

Casa do Peso has 7 rooms and 4 suites all with private bathrooms and one of the rooms is prepared to receive people with reduced mobility. These rooms and suites are decorated with Portuguese furniture or high quality replicas, representative of the 16th and 19th century Portuguese styles. A King of Portugal was associated to each room and suite, trying to reproduce and get to know to the guests, the experiences of the time.
